In the Matter of: CHRISTOPHER J. O'KEEFE Member No.: 165197 A Member of the State Bar	Case No(s): 09-N-15798 (S192908) MINUTE ORDER EXTENDING TIME TO PASS STATE BAR ETHICS SCHOOL

On July 18, 2012, Respondent filed a motion seeking an extension of time to take and pass the State Bar's Ethics School and to present proof of that fact to the Office of Probation. On July 23, 2012, the State Bar Office of Probation filed its response to the motion, objecting to any relief being given.

Respondent is obligated to take and pass the State Bar's Ethics School on or before August 13, 2012. On July 9, 2012, when he sought to register for a qualifying program before that deadline, he learned that all classes before the deadline in Los Angeles had already taken place and that the only remaining scheduled class in San Francisco before August 23 was already full. Hence he was required to enroll in a class in Los Angeles on August 23, 2012, ten days after the one-year deadline. After enrolling in that class, Respondent then filed this timely motion for the necessary brief extension of the one-year deadline.

Good cause having been shown, the time for Respondent to take and pass the State Bar's Ethics School and to present proof of that fact to the Office of Probation is extended to September 1, 2012.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: July 30, 2012
